What is this product?

Type

You invest into a debt obligation of the category Investment Product (Credit Linked Note).

Objectives

The aim of this product is to obtain a higher yield by assuming the default risk of the reference entity. As a result, you assume the credit risk of both the issuer and the reference entity. The product has a fixed interest rate and a fixed maturity, unless a credit event occurs.

The interest payments as well as the date and amount of redemption will depend on the solvency of the reference entity. As long as the solvency of the reference entity is not impaired and no credit event occurs, interest will be paid regularly and the product will be redeemed at the redemption rate at maturity. However, if a credit event occurs, no outstanding interest will be paid and the redemption will be omitted either partially or even completely. The redemption amount can be significantly lower than the principal amount and may even be zero. In that case, a total loss will occur. In addition, the maturity will change: depending on the date of the credit event, the product may be redeemed before or after the agreed maturity date.

Credit events are: bankruptcy, failure to pay and restructuring of payment obligations. For an exhaustive list of credit events, please refer to the Final Terms.

Reference entity:	Anglo American PLC
Issue Date:	7/13/2015
Maturity Date:	10/20/2022
Principal Amount:	1,000.00 EUR
Interest Rate:	2.90% p.a.
Interest Payment:	yearly, starting on 10/20/2016
Redemption Rate:	100.00%

The issuer is entitled to terminate the product with immediate effect, if an extraordinary event occurs. Examples of extraordinary events include changes in legislation and tax events. In this case, the redemption amount (fair market price) may possibly be significantly below the purchase price. You also bear the risk that the product will be called in at a time unfavourable to you, and you may only be able to reinvest the redemption amount on less favourable terms.

Intended retail investor

This product is aimed at retail investors who can bear losses up to the total loss of the invested capital and prefer a short-term investment horizon. The retail investor has sufficient knowledge and / or experience with financial products. The retail investor has no clear (or significant) preference regarding capital growth and/or regular payments.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a very low level, and poor market conditions are unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

Be aware of currency risk. If the currency of the product is different from the currency of the country in which you live, you will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get will depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products.

The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies, and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the product. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if Erste Group Bank AG is unable to pay out?

This product is not covered by any deposit guarantee scheme. You are exposed to the risk that Erste Group Bank AG may not be able to fulfil its obligations arising from this product in the event of an insolvency (inability to pay, over-indebtedness) or from an official order ("bail-in regime"). A total loss of your invested capital is possible.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for two different holding periods. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest 10,000 EUR. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.
